CALIFORNIA (Sports)	Two ballot initiatives were filled in California. The two initiatives are “The Sports Wagering Regulation and Tribal Gaming Protection Act”, which can be read here and “The Tribal Gaming Protection Act”, which can be read here. The long form measure authorizes in-person and online sports wagering, if operated by California tribes pursuant to compacts or laws enacted by the state and approved by tribes that meet the standards set forth in the measure. The short form measure amends the Constitution of California to prohibit the legislature from authorizing sports wagering by anyone other than California tribes. The goal of the initiative proponents is to collect enough signatures and have the initiatives appear on the November 2024 ballot. Wagering could be offered no earlier than September 1, 2025. The legal age to bet would be 21.
FLORIDA (Sports)	The Seminole Tribe relaunched online sports betting on a limited basis. West Flagler has filed a motion with Florida’s Supreme Court, asking that it suspend Florida’s online sports betting. The Seminole Tribe announced that in-person sports betting in Florida will launch starting on Dec. 7th. The United States Supreme Court denied West Flagler’s request for a stay of a lower court’s ruling, which allowed sports betting to move forward in Florida. United States Supreme Court Chief Justice John Roberts issued a temporary stay of a lower court ruling in the West Flagler sports betting case that would have allowed sports betting to move forward	Dec. 07-Seminole Tribe launching in-person sports betting

INDIANA (iGaming)	The long session of the Indiana General Assembly has concluded, with both chambers adjourning just before 2AM on Apr 28. Neither iGaming nor iLottery were authorized in any form during this legislative session.	Adjourned	iDEA continues to work with key legislators and stakeholders in Indiana.
MASSACHUSETTS (Sports)	On July 24, Massachusetts Joint Committee on Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure held a hearing and heard testimony on S. 182. As background, this bill would make sportsbooks subject to Massachusetts deceptive advertising laws. The bill number for SD. 766 was changed to S. 182 and was then referred to the Joint Committee on Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure. More information available in the Member Portal.	Nov. 11 – adjournment	iDEA will monitor the activity of the Massachusetts legislature.
MINNESOTA (Sports)	The Minnesota Legislature adjourned without passing sports betting legislation. May 12: the Minnesota Senate Tax Committee passed the Senate sports wagering bill out of committee and sent the bill to the Senate Finance Committee. However, it is unlikely that sports betting legislation will pass in Minnesota this year. May 11: the Rules and Administration Committee reported the bill out of Committee and sent the bill to the Tax Committee. May 10: Minnesota Senate State and Local Government and Veterans Committee passed the Senate sports wagering bill 8-5. All MN bills can be accessed in the Member Portal.	Adjourned
NEW HAMPSHIRE (iGaming)	Apr 26: House Ways and Means Committee unanimously recommended against passage of SB 104 (Lang). However, the bill can still be called for a vote on the House floor. As background, SB 104

	would authorize online gaming in New Hampshire and direct net proceeds to a community college education scholarship fund. The NH Lottery Commission would choose online casino operators in a competitive bidding process. Mar 23: the Finance Committee adopted an amendment to the bill removing the legalization of online slots to address concerns from the state’s retail-based charitable casinos.
NEW JERSEY (Sports + iGaming) (New)	iDEA continues to actively monitor the potential of a gaming tax increase and is working closely with various stakeholders. The New Jersey Speaker of the House is considering a gaming tax increase. iDEA is actively working to persuade the Speaker otherwise. The New Jersey Gaming Association is also aware of what the Speaker is considering.		iDEA will continue to monitor the New Jersey Legislature.
NEW YORK (iGaming)	Mar 14: Assembly and Senate released their one-house budgets; neither proposal included iGaming revenue. Feb 27: NY State Assembly passed A1118, sponsored by Assemb. Clyde Vanel. Proposal calls for sports betting companies to include info in advertising that highlights the potential dangers of legal gambling. Bill moved to the Senate where it was referred to the Racing, Gaming and Wagering Committee. Feb 15: Sen. Addabbo filed bill S4856 to legalize iGaming. The bill would offer an online license to each sports betting operator; the proposed tax rate is 30.5%. Feb 1: Gov. Hochul unveiled her 2024 executive budget; legal iGaming was not included. Jan 31: NY Senate Racing, Gaming, and Wagering Committee and Assembly Racing and Wagering Committee conducted hearing on mobile sports betting. Operators testified need to lower 51% tax rate. Jan 17: Sen. Addabbo filed S1962 that would tie reduction in tax rate to increased number of operators. Tax rate would be lowered to 50% if there are 10-12 operators, 35% for 13-14; and 25% for 15+. Other bills we’re monitoring include S1550, which would require all advertisements to include warnings about the potentially harmful and

	addictive effects of gambling, and A 1056, which would create a problem gambling advisory council. All bills can be accessed in the Member Portal (NY state page).
NORTH CAROLINA (Sports + iGaming)	NC Gov. Cooper announced that he will allow the budget to become law without his signature. The House and Senate have passed the budget. In the budget, there is language that requires that in order to be licensed, an operator must have a written agreement with one of the state’s professional sports franchises or venues. Casinos and VGT’s weren’t included in the budget. We’re hearing that the legislative leaders are targeting the week of October 2nd for a separate bill to address those issues. iDEA is actively engaged with the North Carolina Legislature on these issues. As of September 15, no final vote on the budget has taken place and negotiations are ongoing. NC’s Governor and Legislature is attempting to insert land-based casino and VLT licenses in the state budget. iDEA is already at work to have iGaming included in the budget as well. The casinos and VLT’s have been lobbying this behind the scenes for the past few months and the VLT lobby is trying to make sure that iGaming legalization doesn’t make it into the budget. June 14: Governor Cooper signed H 347 into law. NC has 12 months to launch online sports betting. A copy of the ratified bill can be accessed here. June 7: NC House concurred with changes made by the Senate to the sports betting bill. The bill now heads to the Governor; anticipated he will sign. June 1: H 347 passed out of the Senate. Since changes were made in the Senate, the bill goes back to House for a concurrence vote. Sports betting will launch no later than 12 months after the bill becomes law. May 24: the Senate Committee on Commerce and Insurance amended and then reported H 347 to the Senate Committee on Finance. Among the changes is increasing tax rate to 18%.		On August 30, iDEA sent a letter concerning the legalization of iGaming to NC’s Governor, Lt. Governor and to the Senate Appropriations Chairs and the House Appropriations Chairs. Copies of the letter were also sent to every member of the Legislature. You can read a copy of the letter here. iDEA will monitor the activity of the North Carolina legislature.

OHIO (Sports)	OH's final budget includes increased sports wagering tax rate of 20%. The Ohio budget conference committee started on June 22. The House is fighting hard against the 10% tax increase. June 15: the Senate passed their version of the budget (includes the increased sports gaming tax); now heads to a conference committee. The Senate's substitute budget bill reinstated Gov. DeWine's proposed doubling of the sports gaming tax from 10% to 20%. With education budget negotiations being an intricate part of the process, we have been informed that a deal has been struck on education and the funding will come from either the Rainy Day Fund and the extra revenues the state has from what was originally projected in the budget estimate. In his recommended two-year state budget proposal (line 73672), Gov. DeWine proposed doubling the tax on sports betting from 10% to 20%.		iDEA will monitor the activity of the Ohio legislature. On June 27, iDEA General Counsel, Jeff Ifrah sent a letter to members of Ohio's HB 33 Conference Committee with recommendations related to the state Senate's proposed tax increase on sports betting. You can read a copy of the letter in the Member Portal.
OKLAHOMA	Oklahoma Governor Kevin Stitt announced his proposal for sports betting in Oklahoma. The proposal will have retail sports betting conducted by federally recognized Oklahoma tribes. The tax rate will be 15%. Tribal sports betting will be pursuant to a state-tribal gaming compact. Online sports betting will be offered by licensed sports betting operators. Operators would pay an initial licensing fee of $500,000 and be required to pay an annual licensing fee of $100,000. The tax rate will be 20%. You can read a fact sheet on the Governor's proposal here.
RHODE ISLAND (iGaming)	RI's Governor has signed the iGaming bills, which take effect on March 1, 2024. June 13: the House Finance Committee recommended passage of substitute B for S 948. On the same day, the House Finance Committee amended the House version of the iGaming bill, H 6348 and recommended passage. The bills mirror each other. June 15: the House passed both substituted bills. The Senate concurred with the changes to the Senate bill and passed the House bill. Both bills have been sent to the Governor. If signed into law, the bills will take effect on March 1, 2024. Note: While only one of these bills must go

	through the entire legislative process to become law, in Rhode Island, it is not uncommon for both the identical Senate and House versions to be enacted into law. June 6: the Senate Special Legislation and Veterans Affairs Committee recommended passage of bill substitute A for S 948 (a bill that would legalize iGaming) and placed the bill on the Senate calendar. June 8: the Senate passed the substitute bill A. May 10: Hearing on S 948 in Senate Special Legislation and Veterans Affairs Committee; Committee recommended the bill be held for further study. Apr 27: State Senate President Dominick Ruggerio filed S 948, a bill to legalize iGaming. The legislation would allow the state's Division of Lotteries to authorize online slots and table games at Bally's retail casinos in the state.
VERMONT (Sports)	June 14: Gov. Phil Scott signed H 127 into law. The Vermont Department of Liquor and Lottery will be the regulatory body that oversees sports wagering. It is expected that sports wagering will launch by January 2024. May 9: VT House concurred on changes made by the Senate to the sports wagering bill. The bill now heads to Gov. Phil Scott, and it is anticipated that he will sign. May 3: the Senate passed H 127 (Birong) with various amendments that do the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Alters the fee structure to bring in more money per operator, spread over multiple years. • Eliminates cap on advertising, allowing Dept. of Liquor and Lottery (DLL) to negotiate that with operators. • Bans advertising on college campuses. • Prohibits advertising on products marketed to those under the age 21. • Requires operators to submit an advertising plan with application and contract with the DLL. • Adjusts revenue to the problem gambling fund. • Establishes penalty for sportsbooks operating illegally in Vermont. 	Adjourned

	As background, the bill would legalize up to six sports betting apps. While there is no current tax projection, the Governor’s annual budget includes $2.6 million of sports betting tax revenue. A copy of the bill and adopted amendments can be accessed in the Member Portal.
